

Need Help Purchasing Our Products From A Retailer?

In order to assist both our valued consumers and our retail partners, please use the form below to more easily purchase 2x4basics products:

Note to our consumers: Print this page and take it to your retailer. Please note that not all retailers stock all our products in their stores. Some products may require the retailer to place a special order from either their local warehouse supply or directly from our company. Please allow extra time for special orders. We suggest calling ahead to verify product availability. To request a special order at your retail store, go to the Commercial Sales or Help Desk and present this information page.

Thank you for your interest in our 2x4basics products!

Note to our retail partner: Use this page to help you more easily provide your customers with 2x4basics quality products. Thank you for your assistance.
